

Maroš Šefčovič

Slovak nationality

- European Commission Vice-President for the Energy Union and EU Space policy
Co-chair of the Global Covenant of Mayors for Climate and Energy
Temporarily also in charge of the Digital Single Market
2014-present
- Doctor Honoris Causa, Pan-European University in Bratislava
2018
- Author of the book 'Driving the EU forward' on the first mandate as Commission Vice-President 2014
- Commission Vice-President for Inter-Institutional Relations and Administration
2010-2014
- Elected as a Member of the European Parliament
2014
- European Commissioner for Education, Training, Culture and Youth
2009-2010
- Slovak Permanent Representative to the EU
2004-2009
- Director-General of European Affairs Section, Slovak Ministry of Foreign Affairs
2003
- Director-General of Bilateral Cooperation Section, Slovak Ministry of Foreign Affairs
2002
- Awarded Chatam Sofer Medal for promotion of Slovak-Israeli relations 2002

-
- Ph.D. in international and European law, Comenius University in Bratislava 2000
 - Ambassador, Slovak Embassy, Israel
1999
 - Deputy Head of Mission, Slovak Mission to the EU in Brussels
1998
 - Director, Foreign Minister's Office
1998
 - Deputy Director, Foreign Minister's Office
1997
 - Deputy Director for the EU and NATO countries, Ministry of Foreign Affairs
1995
 - Deputy Chief of Mission, Czech and Slovak Federal Embassy, Canada
1992
 - Consul, Czech and Slovak Federal Embassy, Zimbabwe
1991-1992
 - Advisor to the Deputy Foreign Minister, Czech and Slovak Federal Ministry of Foreign Affairs
1990
 - Doctor of Law (JUDr.), Comenius University in Bratislava
1990
 - Moscow State Institute of International Relations in Moscow
1990
 - University of Economics in Bratislava
1985